

SACRED HEART COLLEGE

A tradition of excellence

APPLICATION FOR SCHOLARSHIP

Please submit completed form to the Office of the Academic Vice Principal

Deadline for Submission of Completed Application: June 30

Submissions

To complete your application for this scholarship, you must submit the following along with your completed application form:

- Evidence of financial need through presentation of an official Income Tax TD4 slip and/or an official letter from a respectable public official (High School Principal, Justice of the Peace, Religious Minister) to vouch for your financial circumstance.
- Incoming first form - an official Primary School Transcript or Std. 6 Report Card and PSE score
- 2nd – 4th forms – report card
- A letter of reference from a respectable public official which vouches for your character and work attitude
- A paragraph explaining why you should receive this scholarship. Form is attached.

An official document which serves to indicate BOTH your financial need AND character may be submitted instead of separate documents as stated in the 1st and 4th requirements above.

NOTE: Applications that are incomplete or late will NOT be considered

Scholar Guidelines:

- You must actively seek enrollment, as student of Sacred Heart College at the time of application for this award
- The award is valid for one academic school year of study at Sacred Heart College. Having been awarded the scholarship, you may seek renewal every year by meeting the guidelines for the scholarship.
- The award covers half of the registration fees for the school year, on an annual basis. Monies disbursed will be paid directly to the SHC Accounts Department to assist with defraying of registration fees for the school year.
- Upon acceptance of the scholarship, you will be required to sign a contract, perform duties and responsibilities as outlined in the agreement and be evaluated regularly by the assigned supervisor.
- Other terms and conditions applicable to this scholarship are outlined in detail in the scholarship contract signed at the time of acceptance.
